

First Nations Health Authority
Health through wellness

The First Nations Health Authority is a diverse and transformational health organization of professional, innovative and dedicated team members and leaders.

The first of its kind in Canada, FNHA works as a health-and-wellness partner with BC First Nations to support self-determination and decision-making to improve health outcomes.

Employment Opportunity

Manager, Community Relations

Vancouver BC, Full-time

Are you looking to join an organization that is committed to a proactive holistic approach to health and wellness by delivering sustainable services that honour the customs and traditions of First Nations communities? Are you an experienced leader with expertise in building community relationships through effective communications and proactive engagement?

As the Manager, Community Relations you will build and enhance relationships with community leaders and members on behalf of Health Benefits to ensure continuous and ongoing engagement. You will provide leadership and guidance to the Health Benefits Community Relations team to listen, understand and create actionable plans as well as collaborate with director and leadership teams to achieve community driven health goals.

Extensive travel throughout BC is expected as required, as well as facilitation of engagement sessions at leadership events in collaboration with other teams.

Education & Experience

- University degree in a related field plus 8-10 years related experience, including leadership skills and abilities, or an equivalent combination of education and experience.
- Knowledge of First Nations communities in BC and the health services they receive.
- Experience in working with First Nations would be an asset.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM US

Joining our family means joining an organization that supports personal growth, in-house training, a paid volunteer day and a unique full-day orientation program.

Leading with culture, all FNHA employees complete San'yas Indigenous Cultural Safety Training. We support our family to be leaders in wellness and all staff members develop a yearly wellness plan as part of their performance partnership and goal-setting.

FNHA offers competitive salary, pension, extended health benefits and employee supports for mental wellness including an EAP and cultural supports.

JOIN OUR HISTORIC JOURNEY

At FNHA, you'll have the opportunity to contribute to BC's history. With a unique governing structure and mandate, our fluid work environment means you can play an active role in real change.

Our talented teams value respect and foster lateral kindness in their working relationships. Our holistic approach to wellness, based on First Nations teachings, is incorporated into all aspects of work culture. Where else will you get to create a personal wellness plan as part of your performance goals?

If you are looking for more than a job, come join the FNHA family.
