

Emergency Operation Center Level 1 Activated in Kitsumkalum

June 2, 2022

Hello Kitsumkalum Community,

As of today, Kitsumkalum emergency management department has activated an Emergency Operation Center level 1 (EOC level 1) for Kitsumkalum community. Our emergency management team will be closely working with emergency management BC to ensure protection of this community.

Kitsumkalum emergency management team is dedicated to the overall safety of everyone, trained and ready to respond in the case of emergency with the flooding concerns. Please directly reach out to the number provided if you have direct questions related to this update. As always, be prepared with an emergency bag and ensure mobile devices are charged in the case we need to notify you of imminent risk/concern.

Sincerely,
